

Get Rowdy @ Your Library

Research Quiz 1

1. What is one of the differences between the Internet and a library database?
 - A. Anyone can post items on the Internet, but databases are collections of materials specifically chosen by an editor
 - B. They are both the same
2. What is something a call number can help you do?
 - A. Find an article in a journal
 - B. Locate a specific book in the library
 - C. Link to the full text
3. Where is the best place to go to search for articles on a topic at the library?
 - A. UCAT, the library's catalog
 - B. Current Periodicals, to browse through issues of recent magazines
 - C. A database, such as Academic Search Premier
4. Where can you look to see if the library has an electronic version of the journal you need?
 - A. UCAT
 - B. Databases
 - C. Subject Guides
 - D. E-Journal Locator
5. Which of the following is a valid Expert Keyword search in UCAT?
 - A. gun control in the united states
 - B. controlling of guns, United States
 - C. "gun control" and "united states"
6. Where would you be most likely to find the most current information on a topic?
 - A. Encyclopedia
 - B. Book
 - C. Journal Article
7. TRUE or FALSE: Library databases are available from off-campus.
 - A. True
 - B. False
8. Why do you need to note the library database you use to retrieve an article?
 - A. Because you'll have to pay for accessing it later
 - B. Because you'll need to cite it in the bibliography of your research paper
 - C. So you can find the article on the shelf
9. TRUE or FALSE: The New York Times, a newspaper, is a scholarly resource.
 - A. True
 - B. False
10. Where should you go for help with your research?
 - A. Reference Desk
 - B. Circulation Desk
 - C. Reserves Desk
 - D. University Center Help Desk