

Across

8. numbered list of citations that satisfy a search in a database
15. a shorter work located in a magazine, journal or newspaper usually focused on a narrow event or topic
16. standard search term that identifies the primary content of material, also called descriptors or thesaurus words
18. a summary of an article
20. a list of records showing the materials that a library owns and holds
21. a service allowing you to borrow materials that UTSA does not own from other libraries
22. alpha numeric combination on the spine of the book used to identify its location on the shelf
24. index card-sized plastic sheets of reduced images of printed material
27. a borrower card available from the circulation desk that allows you to check out books from other colleges and universities in the state

Down

1. ability to log on to electronic resources from the library through a computer off campus
2. a publication that is issued at regular intervals
3. manuscripts and other primary documents located on the ITC campus
4. index of journal articles
5. extended essay written to complete requirements for a doctoral degree at a university
6. oversized materials, shelved separately to save space
7. the entire text of material available to be printed, downloaded or emailed
9. a roll of film containing reduced images of printed material
10. the university catalog; the library catalog that lists all of its holdings
11. serial publication written primarily for a general audience
12. serial publication containing scholarly articles written by experts in a field
13. search terms such as "and" "or" "not" that distinguish relationships between your keywords when searching in a database
14. a single title book in a finite number of volumes
17. list of citations used in a publication, about a subject or by an author
19. the physical form of information, such as book, periodical, electronic, microfilm
23. a search involving a root word followed by a symbol (? or *) that instructs the search engine to find variants of the root (i.e. chicano(a)(s))
25. a printed or electronic list of citations to articles, books, reports, etc.
26. service point where you can get help finding, locating or using information
28. service that circulates material selected by an instructor for a short amount of time so that the maximum amount of people can access it
29. the reference for a book, article, etc. that contains information necessary to identify and locate it.