

Finding Full-Text Journal Articles

Go to the library's homepage:
www.lib.utsa.edu

Find Full-Text
Articles in Print or Microform

UCAT (UTSA Library Catalog)

Search by Journal Title.

For the issue/year you
need, write down:

Call Number
Location

If the journal is available in microform, make sure you note whether it is microfiche or microfilm.

Find Full-Text
Articles Electronically

E-Journal Locator

Search by Journal Title.

For the issue/year you
need, click on the link to the database name.

Find It @ UTSA

Search by citation information.

For the issue/year you
need, click on the link to the article or the database name.

Can't find it in print or electronically at UTSA?

WorldCat

Check this database to see if other libraries in town have the journal – make sure to check for your issue/year. You may also want to check that library's catalog for currency. Then, go to that library to read or photocopy the article.

Interlibrary Loan

Submit a request through ILL to have the article delivered to UTSA.
Charges may apply. Allow at least two weeks for delivery.

Need More Help?
Visit the Reference Desks
Call 458-4573 (JPL)
Call 458-2446 (DTN)
Use Ask A Librarian